

Unit Title: Unit 1 - Bristol

What should I know?

- Identify Bristol as a city and London as the capital city of England. Identify UK being an island.
- Identify that we live in England and that Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland make up the UK.
- Identify where they live through starting to look at aerial photos of Patchway and identify places that are important to them.
- Introduce positional language to support children giving simple directions on a map and use simple positional language.
- Use simple fieldwork and observational skills to study the geography of their school grounds.
- Sequence events that have happened to themselves or events that have happened in Bristol.
- To look at the past through different medium.

What should I know by the end of the unit?

- To recount events in their own lifetime and to write date of birth.
- To write own address including postcode.
- To identify some of the monuments in Bristol and compare these to some found in London.
- To identify UK as an island and to identify some of its coastlines.
- To learn write stories and recounts of the past.
- To identify human and physical features of a place.
- To identify the difference between Patchway (Urban) and a rural Uganda (links to Brighton).
- To compare Patchway with Uganda and London.
- To learn about a significant individual - Brunel.

Key Knowledge

What are Human and Physical Features?

Human Features

Human features are those features created by humans such as:

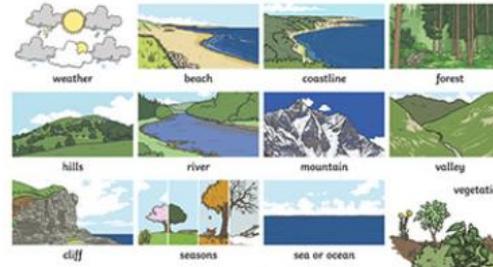

- Shop
- House
- Church
- Post office
- Statue

Physical Features

Physical features are those that already exist in the land, such as:

- Hill
- Mountain
- River
- Cliff
- Forest
- Lake
- Island
- Beach

Urban and Rural Cities

Urban area - is usually a city or a town with lots of built up areas and has a large population density.

Rural City - is an area with a smaller population and is usually made up of countryside.

Key Vocabulary

- Ariel
- Continent
- Ocean
- Capital City
- Uganda
- London
- Bristol
- Human Features
- Physical Features
- Exercise
- North
- South
- East
- West

Making Links - Remember when you....

- Thinking about different areas around the world and comparing human and physical features.
- Making links between different areas such as Bristol, London and places in non-European countries.

Key Knowledge

Bristol

Bristol is an urban area with a high population. Bristol is famous for its famous individuals such as Banksy, Isambard Kingdom Brunel, John Cabot, John Wesley and Colston.

Isambard Kingdom Brunel (IKB)

IKB is famous for many landmarks around Bristol such as:

London

IKB built the Great Western Railway that went all the way from Bristol to London. London is the capital city of England and is an urban city just like Bristol. London is famous for many landmarks such as:

We will learn more about this in our next topic

Families

Is a country in Africa and is known for its famous rural areas with beautiful physical features such as:

