

Exceptional Individuals

I already know...

- Some memories about exceptional individuals lives.
- England, Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales make the UK.
- The past can be different to now.
- Who is in my direct family.
- How to sequence events on a timeline.

Key Vocabulary

Role model	A person whose actions set an example or are copied by others.
Achievement	Something done successfully through hard work, courage, or skill.
Events	A thing that happens or takes place which is often important.
Past	Something that happened or existed in a time before now (the present).
Present	Something that is happening now.
Future	Events or something that might happen in time to come.
Artist	A person who is good at painting, music, writing, or any other art.
Timeline	A picture representation of a period of time, on which important things are marked.
Charity	An organisation set up to provide help and raise money for those in need.
Nature	The physical world and living things in their natural state.

What should I know by the end of the topic?

- How to sequence events in order based around events happening in exceptional individuals lives.
- The difference between past and present in my own and other people's lives.
- Parts of stories and memories about exceptional individuals lives.
- Some facts about exceptional individuals.
- How to perform a simple scientific experiment, make predictions and record my findings.
- The work of famous artists focussed on sculpture.

Making Links - Remember when you...

- Drew your own hero and explained why they are exceptional.
- Used a timeline to sequence events and remembered parts of stories.
- Learnt about famous people in Bristol e.g. Brunel and Cabot.
- Learnt about capital cities and countries in the UK
- Learnt about human and physical geography- links to David Attenborough.

Exceptional Individuals

Marcus Rashford

Serena and Venus Williams

David Attenborough

Brunel

Investigate the work of famous artists

The Mamam sculpture by Louise Bourgeois.

Nature art by Andy Goldsworthy.

Key Knowledge

Marcus Rashford- English footballer known for his Free School Meals Campaign.

Serena and Venus Williams- Sisters from America known for their amazing tennis success.

Brunel- A famous engineer who built many bridges, ships and railway stations that we still use today.

David Attenborough- BBC presenter and known for saving the planet.

Past and Present

First, I was born.

Next, my sister was born.

Later, we moved house.

After that, I started school.

Now I am in Year 1.