

Hello & Welcome to our Easter Holidays Newsletter!

M Shed

Bristol 650 Trail map FREE

A new trail map around M Shed is now available from the front desk for schools and families visiting the museum.

The trail looks at Bristol in the last 650 years through objects on display in the M Shed.

Bristol 650 marks 650 years since King Edward III granted important rights and privileges to Bristol by royal charter in 1373.

QUEST

PRIMARY

Doing an extra activity at home like cooking or creating an interesting piece of art?

Send us evidence of your activity to CU@uwe.ac.uk and receive a stamp code.

Remember to ask for the Stamp Code for any activities you take part in!

The Munch Mission

Oh help, our Munch is missing!

Do you possess the wit, nerve and skill to become the next CIA agent? A world famous artwork has gone missing from Oslo National Museum. Work with Agents Kahlo and Dali of the Company of International Artists to solve a fiendishly sneaky art heist. Help them to chase leads, decipher clues and interrogate suspects to retrieve the missing artwork in this globe-trotting adventure.

Full of mystery, nods to film noir and a broad streak of quirky comedy, The Munch Mission is a playable family theatre show from award-winning theatre company Brave Bold Drama. As a playable show, the audience work actively with the characters to solve the mystery. Different choices will unlock different scenes.

The Munch Mission is best suited to those aged 6+ due to the pace of the storytelling however the content is suitable for younger audiences.
